“ Ms. Beverly, wow, can not even believe I am writing this. I know this seems strange, especially because of the way we met. I became your nurse almost 2.5.years ago. I dont want to say your nurse any more, because the fact is, we became friends, family and well.a team. You taught me so much. We laughed, fought and most of all understand each other. I really hope you have your "own" place now, you really deserve it. Know that you will be missed and thank you my friend for being you, because of you, I will forever be a better nurse.
