“ Always knowing Michael had a lot of important things to say to us, knowledge to share with us, and funny stories for us, it gives me joy knowing his heavenly body is now fully healed and all the intelligence stored in his 48 year old mind is being shared with any heavenly angel who will listen. May God's peacefulness be with Michael's parents, siblings, and extended family who each have treasured memories of times with Michael. Family gatherings will never be the same - our drinks are all our own now, but we can still share a drink with Michael by making a toast!
