“ So many memories with you! Dang it, we shared so many firsts together, and, oh my, did we do some walking. We treaded across Laplace on feet more times than many do by car. I'll never forget all those special moments! Rest in peace, Todd! You will forever live on in the hearts of those that you touched with that special "Todd charisma."

“ You were like my uncle and you were my favorite person to talk to when there was crazy shit happening in the world. You always said I was your favorite hippie spirit and I’ve been lighting candles for you ever since the news was broken. You were such a big soul and this world didn’t deserve you. I may not have been the biggest part in your life but the impact you had on me is something I will carry with me forever. Whenever I see anything related to pickles, I’ll always think of you. I wish you wouldn’t have left. Rest peacefully, Todd David Anderson. You are so so missed and cared for in more ways than you know. I’ve communicated with you twice now in spirit. I know you’re at peace.

“ Oh Todd!! I miss you! You always called me your little sister, and I loved teasing you. You always let me vent and I let you vent. I didn't judge you. I just cared. My heart hurts at losing a close friend and it will take me awhile to adjust my feelings. I hope you finally are at peace with your life. I hope you have massive amounts of snow.

Love you Todd. Thanks for being a good friend.

“ I spoke with you on the phone, you sounded so upbeat and ready to get on with your life. An hour later I'm notified that you are no longer with us. What happened in that short period of time? I'm angry and my heart is shattered! You will always be a bright spot in my life and my love for you shall never wane! Be at peace, Son! Love, Dad

“ Your love for the boys is undeniable. Every time you talked about one of them that big smile just popped out on your face. We will burn a Yankee candle for you. You and William had become pretty close in this last year. He was proud of you as his son-in-law and friend. One of Williams favorite memories is when you took he and Carsun to the Civil War Battlefield. I'll never forget when you and April came to visit when we lived in Lexington . Looked at me so serious and said: may I ask how you get your bath towels so soft??? Todd, you will not be forgotten. You hold a special place in our hearts. Thank you for giving us a grandson. We are sorry we can't be there but know you will understand. Love Bill and Marilyn “ Todd was bigger than life. He had the biggest heart, the biggest attitude, and the biggest smile. He never stopped trying to better himself, for both his own peace of mind and his family. Until we meet again, brother. Onward, to Valhalla.

“ Oh my sweet husband. Where do I begin 14 years ago that shy man that was even scared to ask me for my number was the day that changed my life forever. You saved me in one of my darkest times in life and we have been unstoppable since. We started out with nothing and built an amazing life together. The boys and me was everything to you and I never ever once doubted that. The love you had for your family was beyond unconditional. You was my best friend not just my husband, you could make me calm down when I would be so stressed by just looking me in my eyes and saying baby you got this. You made me the woman and the mother I am today. You taught me to stand up for myself, and to be strong, and to keep my heart but protect it. You believed in me always right until the end. Our last conversation I will hold dear to my heart more than anyone will ever know. Those last I love you April Anderson forever mean more to than I could ever imagine now. You was such a joker, fun, loving man you could make a wall laugh if you had to. I pray that you are at peace and that you know I love you more than anything. I will do my very best to take care of the boys and your family. I love you my husband until we meet again.
