

Aaron Patrick Carr

September 22, 1977 - November 29, 2017

Aaron received his angel wings on Wednesday, November 29, 2017 at the age of 40. He was always working with his hands and loved wood working. Aaron was an outdoorsman who enjoyed going hunting and fishing. He was very personable and loved being around people. Aaron was a truly Spiritual man who had a heart of gold and loved every person that came into his life. He never met a stranger. Aaron had the most infectious smile that would light up a room as soon as he walked in. He loved to tease everyone he knew, but it was always out of love. Aaron enjoyed learning about his family history and genealogy. He was an avid creative chef in the kitchen, making up new recipes all the time. Aaron enjoyed spending time in the kitchen, especially when it was spent with his mom and dad. His favorite place to be was the sandy white beaches soaking up the sun. Aaron is already deeply missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by his parents, Betty Carol Bankston Carr and Raymond Stafford Carr; sister and Best Friend, Amanda Urrutia and husband James; cousin who was more like his brother, Austin Bankston of Vancouver, WA; loving nieces, Alex Wright who was the light of Aaron's life, and Victoria Urrutia; loving nephews, James Nicholas Urrutia and Aidan Bankston; his very special friend and life partner Heather Perrone; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Preceding Aaron in death are his grandparents, Floyd and Estelle Bankston, and John M. "Buck" Carr Sr. and Juanita Stafford Carr; and his infant sister, Elizabeth Carr.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Monday, December 4, 2017, from 10:00 am until the Celebration of Life Service at 2:00 pm. Bro. Hanson Bourgios will officiate the service.

“ Betty Carol and Raymond, my thoughts, heartfelt sympathies, and prayers are sent your way. I got to see Aaron about six weeks ago when he was helping Buddy and Jackie with Raymond. He was as sweet and friendly then as he was thirty years ago. He gave me a big bear hug asking about Kemp kids and how I was doing. I am grateful we had that moment. I cannot imagine your feeling of loss-- sending prayers for peace.
love,

“ Betty Carol, Raymond & Amanda sending all of you our love, hugs and prayers. Betty Carol, my most precious memory of Aaron is when he started 1st Grade at Holy Ghost. I was Peggy Dunn’s aide. I saw this cute little boy with the neatest uniform and that hair that was never out of place even at the end of the day. He was standing by one of the punishment poles at recess. I started talking to him about why he was punished and told me a story I don’t remember and I thought how could you deny this precious little boy recess. Then once I found out who his mom was I keep an eye out for him especially when I had recess duty. He had the most angelic face with a little devil grin. I could always tell when he was maybe changing the story a little his eyes would get bigger. He was definitely a charmer. I am just sorry he was taken so soon. Also Amanda know that Josh called last night when he heard the news and was very heartbroken and concerned for your family. Betty Carol, I know growing up we were happy and carefree, but becoming adults seems to take all that away. Just know Aaron is in your heart and will always be there and he will never leave. Please feel free to call me if you just need to talk or a shoulder to cry on. Sending you strength, love and prayers. The Brooks Family (Phyllis, Julie and Josh)

“ Betty Carol and Raymond, Amanda, as Aaron and Amanda's babysitter, Tammy has something to say. I hope Amanda can interpret this. You two kids were a mess. Sweet as sugar. Tammy remembers Aaron throwing money pennies at her Amanda, Do You? Just a memory from the past. She loved babysitting with Aaron and you Amanda. And, your mom and I loved working together, insurance. Biggest problem of the day was where do we eat. I know losing Aaron is like losing a piece of your heart. We lost Suzanne a few years ago,, the same way. It hurts so deeply, time might help, but healing is lifetime. So are Memories and happy times. After twp months of grieving, I started pulling out every happy moment we ever had with Suzanne. The healing began. I wish you strength, thru God, grieving in your own way and time. Hang on to those you love, family. Cherish those memories. Sandra and Tammy.

“ So glad we got a chance to hang out recently. First time is probably 12 years since we had seen each other and neither of us expected the others life to be the way it turned out. It was a great night!

You were always such a fun, loving guy. You will be dearly missed.

My condolences and prayers to your family through this unbelievably difficult time.

Rest Brother. My life is better knowing you.
