“Dad I don't remember much of you but mommy tells me sooooo much about you. Sorry I'm just leaving something, in just finding out about this site. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. We all miss you so much. I read Blane's memory to you and he really has been trying to see us, he just never has time. Mom always tells me things about you. Like how you always helped people. And if you were here that we would be on the river all the time and we would always go fishing. You mean so much to me and everyone. I can't wait to see you one day. I'm not always the best but I really do try. I don't want to let you down in life. I always try my hardest at things. For example, volleyball since I made the team I am going to practice very well and prepare for my games all for you and me. There is no word to describe how much I miss you. I love you like so much. You were such a great person and you didn't deserve to go but God knows what he is doing. Thank you for always watching over us, me, Blake, Blane, Brynna, and mom. I pray every night to you and god. I do as much as I can to help mom. She goes through so much and she doesn't deserve the disrespect she gets from everyone. People put mommy through so much but she has so much love and she just can't say no. Life is kind of hard but I think God is going to get us through it. I know you are in the best place anyone can be in and I'm so happy that you can be happy up there. I look at all of the pictures of you. I still have my elephant for memories of you and our picture together when I was a baby. I've come so far with life but I'm not done growing and learning yet. I'm going to be a teenager in 3 days and I'm excited. I try to be as positive as I can and I try to stay strong even though I'm a very sensitive person. Im doing great in Spanish class. I just want a big hug from you. Sometimes I feel like you're really with me. I still cry when I think of you and sometimes I really need you. I can't wait to see you again. Sometimes I imagine what life would be like if you were still here and I know life would be so different. I'm tall and skinny just like you were, I'm definitely not done growing either. Mom and Mimi say that I look just like you and sometimes they say I look like Blake and Blane too. I love my brothers so much and I miss them as well. I love my sister too. Obviously I love you and mom. So many tears have fallen from my eyes and the best ones are always from you. I'm very grateful for my life and sometimes I don't show it but believe me I am. I will never forget you. You will always be in my heart. I love you dad and thank you for trying to be the best father in the whole world. No one can ever replace you. I love you.

“ I love you so much dad, words cant even begin to describe how much i miss you. i thought as i got older the pain would seem to go away, but today ive thought about you a lot. The crazy thing is, i cant remember much. God, what i would give to have one more second with you. Please continue to watch down on me and the girls. I havent seen them in a long time and i know you wouldnt like that. I really miss them. Im gonna go see them soon for both of our sakes. Dad, you were my best friend. You were the only thing i had. Ive grown up a lot. I know you left before i got a chance to stumble upon baseball, but im actually really good at. My grades have been really good. I do everything i do for you, in your name. im 6 feet tall now. I wish you were here to tell me how big im getting, but ill be okay because in my heart i know that ill see you again one day. and the day i can hug you again will come, which is why i continue to strive for you. Dad, i love you more than life itself. Forever your son-Blane.
