

Alan David Cole

October 14, 1954 - March 19, 2017

On March 19th, 2017 Alan David Cole, aged 62, died peacefully in his home with his loving wife of 24 years, Karen Bernard-Cole, by his side. Alan, AC, Ace, or Buddy as he was lovingly called, was born October 14th, 1954 in New Orleans, Louisiana. His father "Al" was in the U.S. Navy, so Alan's family moved with each deployment. After leaving New Orleans, they moved to Arkansas, Hawaii, and Virginia. Alan's favorite, by far, was Hawaii where he enjoyed adventure at every turn. When his Dad retired, the family moved to Mandeville, Louisiana to be closer to family. Alan was very curious about all things mechanical and was very talented at fixing them. He worked in sales for a few years, and then worked as a realtor. Alan graduated from Mandeville High School and earned a degree in Business from Southeastern Louisiana University. Alan loved his friends and family very much and never met a stranger. He was able to make people at ease and had a great sense of humor. He had an insatiable appetite for all things Western and War history, and could explain things to the "in-th" degree and would have been a great teacher. He will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

He leaves behind his eldest sister, Patrice Gayle Cole and her husband Douglas Berry, his younger sister, Julie Cole Kroger and her husband Dennis Kroger, and his nephews Joshua Paul Kerr and Patrick Lee Kerr.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Alfred Ernest Cole Jr. and Rosavilla

Grinnell Cole.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the Memorial Service from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Saturday, March 25, 2017, at 11:30 a.m. with visitation beginning at 9:30 a.m.
