

Alan Dale Oliver

December 5, 1951 - April 7, 2022

Alan Oliver, of Albany, Louisiana, passed away on April 7, 2022, at the age of 70. He was born on December 5, 1951, in Wichita Falls, Texas to Dean and Virginia Oliver. He is survived by his wife, Jill Oliver of Albany, Louisiana; daughter, Alana (fiancé James) Oliver of Walker, Louisiana; mother, Virginia Oliver, of Hammond, Louisiana; sister, Susan Barnes (Jeff) of Panama City, Florida; niece, Adria Barnes of Lynn Haven, Florida; and nephew, Eric Barnes of Panama City, Florida. He was preceded in death by his father, Dean Oliver, and former wife and mother of his daughter, Dawn Favre Oliver.

Alan retired from Northwest/Delta Airlines, but his first and lifetime job was that of a gifted musician. He spent a lifetime entertaining others with his talent. He traveled with various bands all over the United States and Canada. Alan also enjoyed working at Boogieland Music in Hammond, Louisiana, helping fellow musicians with purchases and repairs and discussing their common love of music.

Alan was sincerely kind to everyone and loved his family and friends immensely. He will be dearly missed. A celebration of his life will be held this summer.

“ I went to Agua Fria High with Alan.
Sat in his bedroom many times in Avondale listening to him play guitar.
Tried to contact him several years ago.
I'm in Houston area and I saw he was in Louisiana...
Great guy.

“ We were both in Wichita Falls, Texas two years apart and it's sad that it's been 45+ years since we were last together.
The entire family will tremendously miss you.
Continue with your music in your after life.
