

Albin "K.K." Watkins

April 18, 1964 - July 28, 2007

K.K. passed away at his lifelong residence in Albany, Saturday, July 28, 2007 at the age of 43. He loved all the nature of earth-trees, grass, wooded outdoors and fishing. K.K. worked as a truck driver for many years and was currently employed with Avants Trucking Company. Loved, respected and cherished by his wife, Robin Strong Watkins and their children, Lewis Watkins and Addie Watkins of Albany. K.K. was adored by his siblings and their spouses, Tommie Lea Watkins Wild and Mike of Albany; Richard and Patricia Palmer Watkins of Pumpkin Center. He was a very special uncle to his two nieces and nephew, Melissa Watts, Jennifer Watkins and Richard Watkins, Jr.; and to his two great nephews, Peyton and Cade Watts. K.K. is also survived by numerous friends and extended family members. He was preceded in death by his father, John Watkins and his mother and step-father, Lea Ella (Albin) and O.D. Thompson. Relative and friends of the family are invited to observe visiting hours beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, July 30, from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, west of Hammond. Following the visitation, Rev. Tommy Hicks will conduct the religious services at 8:00 p.m. Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home of Hammond.
