

Alice A. Williamson

November 2, 1945 - January 23, 2026

Alice, age 80, joined her son in Heaven on Friday, January 23, 2026. She was a resident of Denham Springs, LA and a member of Memorial Chapel Church of God. Alice was strong, independent, and tough as nails. She meant business and didn't pretend otherwise. You always knew where you stood with her, and she wouldn't have had it any other way. Alice loved fishing and could spend hours with a line in the water, perfectly content. She was famous for canning tomatoes, stocking shelves and feeding her family the way she always had, by working hard and doing things herself. Alice sewed clothing for many years, and when that slowed down, it turned into quilting. Those quilts were made with patience, skill, and a whole lot of love. Family meant everything to her. Her grandchildren were her pride and joy, and anyone who knew her knew just how much they mattered to her. Alice lived life on her own terms, strong, capable, and devoted to the people she loved. She leaves behind a family who will miss her greatly and remember her always.

She is survived by her husband of 61 years, John Williamson Sr.; daughters, Nadine Black (Rusty), Susan Doolittle (Charles); son, Scott Williamson (Maria); daughter-in-law, Jackie Williamson; brothers, Sam Aiton (Terrall), William Aiton (Kim), Autie Aiton (Toni); grandchildren, Spencer Black (Kristen), Amber Bartlett (Michael), Robert Williamson, Danielle Gonzales (Christian), Mark Doolittle, Loxley Doolittle, Cielo Pastrana, Bailey Baker; and great-granddaughter, Penelope Bryant.

Alice is preceded in death by her son, Michael Williamson; parents, James Aiton and Martha Baust; and brothers, Mack Aiton and James Aiton.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation at Brandon G. “ A tree. Alice always made me think of a tree. An insanely strong core with just enough cracks to keep her able to bend. Her reach was far and wide and anyone who got caught in her shade felt protected. And a beauty on the outside intensified by her sly smile and that knowing sparkle in her eye. That smile and that sparkle was there until the end...I can tell.

Alice never liked me much, due to my possible contribution to the downfall of one of her children....and I wasn't always respectful to her. As a teenager, having a friend with a strict parent can be annoying. (queue eye roll) As an adult, I see a parent who was fiercely dedicated to making sure her kids didn't turn out to be a$$holes. I have had nothing but respect for her...and I know said child turned out pretty okie-dokie, along with the others 3, which means that Alice did her job.

I had a tree planted somewhere...best way I could think of to say thank you for being a strong, strict, deeply rooted woman...whose shade will continue to reach for generations..and for my friend, who continues to be okie-dokie 40 years later.

Peaceful rest, Alice.
Love, Stacey

“ Im so sorry to hear of your loss. I will always remember Mrs Williamson as a part of some of my best childhood memories, spending time at the Williamson household. She let me tag along with her and Nadine to so many fun things...and her pickled okra, I have not found one better yet. She really was a mother in every sense of the word, her love and care for her family was always very evident. Rest in peace and love, and thank you for letting me play with my friend,Nadine, in your home.
