“ I do not know Amanda nor her family; however, my sister was in the next room over from her in the hospital. Our family has been praying for your family non stop. You have been on my mind daily. As my sister was laying there with her life in the balance, it weighed heavy on her heart to have someone pray with your family. I hope these prayers bring some comfort in the days ahead.

“ Although I did not know Amanda, this is something no parent should not have to endure. Find comfort in all the good times and memories you have of her life on earth. May God bless you and your family in your times of sorrow. Praying for all.
