

Andrew Alexander Lezu

August 30, 1925 - January 6, 2018

Andrew, 92 years young, went to be with his Lord on Saturday, January 6, 2018. He was a native of Albany, Louisiana, and a resident of Harahan, Louisiana. Andrew proudly served his country in the United States Army during World War II in the Pacific. He worked at the Cyanamid Fortier Plant for over 35 years until his retirement. Andrew enjoyed hobbies in mechanical work and TV repair.

Andrew is survived by his daughter, Jeanette Brennan and her husband, Tim; and granddaughter Gwendolyn Brennan; and sisters, Irene Good and Rosa Pfiffner.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Elizabeth Virginia Batta Lezu; parents, Andrew and Mary Lezu; brothers, George Lezu, Frank Lezu, and sister Ida Kreko.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation at St. Margaret Catholic Church in Albany on Saturday, January 13, 2018 from 11:00 a.m. until the Mass of Christian Burial at 1:30 p.m. Fr. Jamin will officiate the services and interment will follow in St. Margaret Catholic Church Cemetery.

“ Jeanette, Frank & I are very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear father, Uncle Andy. Frank has always had a special place in his heart for his uncle and enjoyed the many visits he made to our homes over the years in the Hungarian Settlement. They both shared many of the same interest and he especially enjoyed talking about farm tractors and machinery. Uncle Andy will forever hold a special place in our hearts. Love to you, Tim and Gwen!
