

Angel Corzo

August 2, 1952 - June 2, 2025

Angel, age 72, went to his eternal home surrounded by his friends and family on June 2, 2025. Angel was a native of Havana, Cuba and a resident of Holden, Louisiana. He was a painter, and he owned his own painting company. Angel loved America. One of his biggest accomplishments was in 2011 when he became an American citizen and was able to vote. Angel was incredibly proud of this accomplishment, as he felt he finally had a voice. He had an impressive lottery collection and used his magnifying glass to make sure he had every number correct. He loved spending his free time at Biloxi Beach with his family. Whether they were enjoying the sun, spending time in the casino, or enjoying the buffets, they always made the fondest memories together. Angel was a light to all who knew him, and he will forever be missed. Angel survives by his loving wife of 28 years, Eva Meche; son, Joshua Meche; stepson, Dean Meche (Amy); 6 grandkids, 11 great grandkids and his fur babies, Sasha and Reina.

Angel is preceded in death by his parents, Beita and Jose Corzo, as well as his fur babies, Queen and Tatiana.

A cremation has been held and services will be held privately by the family.

“ *Eva,
So sorry for the loss of your husband Angel. My husband Joseph was a patient at the dialysis center where Angel was also a patient. Joseph passed away on September 6, 2017 and I miss him and think of him every day. You will be in my prayers.*
