

Angela "Angie" Trahan

December 31, 1963 - April 10, 2026

Angie, age 62, passed away suddenly on Friday, April 10, 2026. She was a native of Lynnville, Tennessee and a current resident of Watson, Louisiana. Angie was a proud member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. She lived with a selfless spirit, always putting others before herself, giving freely without expectation, and loving deeply without condition. She was humble and genuine in every sense, never seeking recognition, yet leaving a lasting impact wherever she went. Her quiet generosity touched countless lives, often in ways that others may never fully know. Despite her modest nature, Angie had a wonderful sense of humor. She was full of jokes and brought laughter into even the simplest of moments. Above all, Angie loved her family. They were her greatest joy, her pride, and her purpose. She cherished every moment spent with them and created a foundation of love that will continue to live on in their hearts. She once told her children that if she had to choose between loving her family and breathing, she would have used her last breath to tell them she loved them. Watching her children and grandchildren grow and blossom into the remarkable people they are today was the greatest privilege of her life.

Angie is survived by her loving husband of 33 wonderful years, Robert Trahan; her children, Nicole Sanchez (Michael), Heather Wright (Bryan), Jordan LeBlanc (Kaylynn), and Cristian Trahan (Devereaux); mother, Cynthia Cotillo; father, Gerald Woodard; siblings, Stephen Woodard (Christine), Elizabeth Woodard, and Shane Woodard (Jennifer); grandchildren, Jacob, Liam, Oliver, Sawyer, Hayden, and Elliot; and her “twin”, Charlene Cordier-West.

Angie is preceded in death by her mother-in-law, Brenda Forrestier; father-in-law, Robert Forrestier; and step-father, Antonio Cotillo.

“ I first knew Angie at Hancock Bank, smiling, caring always helpful and time to make you smile. We clicked at first meeting...we loved to laugh. We never visited each other or hung out but she just became part of your life. When she left the bank and started work at Oak Point it was great to see her a little more as the store is close to our home and a great place to shop. Again she always had a smile and how are you and something to make you laugh. We just loved her. I am devastated to say the least to find out about her passing and would certainly been at her service had I found out in time. To her family we are lifting you in prayer and so very sorry for your loss. We would like you to know that Angie was awesome, precious and sweet and she truly, honestly made a difference in so many lives....we have been blessed to have known her and will miss her so very very much. God bless.

“ I just had the pleasure of meeting Angie and Robert one time. My daughter, Kaylynn, married Jordan July 4, 2025. After visiting with her I instantly fell in love with her sweet and loving personality. I know where my wonderful son-in-law got his. I was looking forward to our next visit, but the Lord had his own plan. As difficult as it is we must accept and feel comfort knowing she is in the care of His loving arms. My thoughts and prayers are with all of Angie's family and friends. God Bless.

“ From that first hug, when you jumped up behind me, then said “I’m sorry I squeezed you so hard” to teasing Simon when he had man flu, and then laughing on Thursday about silly online memes. You have taught me so much and given me so much to smile about and I promise to be more “Angie” in my life! Sending so Much love from across the sea to all of you in these sad days xx Ruth, simon and gang xxx

“ We had a blast together! Angie was so much fun and so wonderful! I will miss her and seeing her and my heart breaks for Rob and the kids but it breaks for everyone that knew her as well. We all lost such an amazing person! We had similar personalities and senses of humor and that's what I will miss most is her laugh and her joy. May she rest in peace.

“ My deep condolences to all of you. Angie was my co-worker and such a dear friend. Angie was a sweet soul, my nickname for her was "BEAUTIFUL ". She was always smiling and joking around. Two things she would tell me often, she loved the Lord and her family. God definitely has a new angel to help him up in Heaven now. Angie my sweet friend, you will forever be loved and missed.
