“ My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family during this time of grief. May you have comfort and peace knowing that “The Bible calls Jehovah God “the source of life.” (Psalm 36:9; Acts 17:24, 25) The One who gave life to all living creatures is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who has died.”
Please accept my condolences, and know we are here for you. If you have any questions please contact me at the email listed.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to your family during this time of grief. May you receive comfort and peace you seek. God made hope for the dead possible by sending his Son to die for us. So the resurrection tells us about Jehovah’s love and undeserved kindness. When the dead return to life, whom do you especially want to see?—Read John 3:16; Romans 6:23. I hope you find these scriptures of encouragement to you and your family. If you have any questions please contact me at the email listed.

“ 1971, December 22 and December 29 would link Ann and I into a friendship that I believe helped both of us be young mothers. We were only 18. December 22, Wendy was born, December 29, Kimberly was born, a week apart and thus a connection began. For four years we were neighbors, friends, support to each other. Wendy and Kimberly were fast friends and Ann and I compared milestones, accomplishments, illnesses, losses, changes, moves. In 1975 I moved, We drifted apart. It is said many people will touch our lives along the way. I will forever value having had Ann in my life. She was so special to me and I regret not holding on to our connection. I stupidly hurt her and will always regret ending our relationship. She was strong, funny, amazingly talented. I remember her installing siding on her house in Terrytown herself. There was nothing she would not attempt at least once. She was the mortar that held her family together through thick and thin. She was genuine. To her family, I send my heartfelt sympathy. Remember to value your friends for life is short. RIP sweet Ann “ I'll never forget when Mike and Ann came down and stayed with us at the beach . It was the first time I met her. She , Mike, and Ronnie came. My was that a long time ago. Ronnie was a pre teen if I remember correctly. I looked at her and thought , wow what a beautiful lady Mike has there. Then after years of them coming to our home in Enterprise and Miramar Beach and us going to Kenner and then to Hammond I found out she was just as beautiful on the inside as the outside. We became friends from the first day on. Ann made her family so happy, cooking big dinners for all of them. Man, could she cook. Her gumbo was to die for . All of her cooking was delicious. Anything she cooked tasted as if it came straight from the New Orleans reasturant. Could it be because she was from New Orleans? Ann was a very talented gardener. She could have been in Southern Living magazine every month. She put so much into the beautification of her yard, I have never seen one that pretty. Ever. She got garden of teh month many times,( although she didn't always get the credit for it) :). I , along with others are going to miss you , Ann. My goodness, I can't even begin to say how much. I love you and all your strength. No matter what happened, you stayed so strong in your faith . God is very lucky tonight to have a new angel as you . Love ya.
