“ The few Spanish words I know, I learned from Ms. Misita in Spanish I at Amite High. She loved to tell us about the quetzal bird, describing it's beauty in Spanish, then English. I think about her every time I travel to Central America and try to communicate. She was a wonderful person.

“ Aunt Anne was always so sweet to me. I remember she let me play "plant" in her garden. She told me I was smart and earthy, high praise I felt. She made me feel I was capable. I was always impressed by her Independence, too. Warm memories.

“ Ms. Misita was a wonderful teacher. She taught my self and my husband Donald Dupont. She was funny and intertaining. She use to call my hubby Big Daddy and the name stuck. Everyone he graduated with still calls him "Big Daddy". Thanks for the memories Ms. Misita.

“ As a girl, whenever I visited Aunt Anne her home was always so lovely, and she let me glue S&H Green Stamps in a book. I think you have to be over 50 to remember those.
