“ The Augellos

My deepest sympathy to the family. The time spent with Sarah and her Mom on the Westbank is always remembered with fondness! I loved the way she prepared her Italian sauce. Mr. Augello can still be heard fussing over his Sara like only a loving and devoted father could. He was a wonderful example of a devoted father, husband, and provider. He will be dearly missed by his family I know this.

At this time of immeasurable loss let the God of Comfort know your tender feelings. He is better able to know and strengthen you. He tells us: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out "(John 4:28,29)

“ Mr Tony was a good man. I knew him when he lived on the westbank on Randolph st. I grew up with Pat, Tony, and Sarah. I remember how I loved going to their house every week. Great atmosphere. I always thought of Mr. Tony as a gentle giant. I was sad to see them move to the north shore but I understand because I now live on the north shore too.

I did miss the funeral because of work . But I wanted to give my condolences to the family whom I miss. And I know Mr. Tony will be missed. And he was well loved by all his family and friends.

“ Dearest Lucy and family,

There truly are no words to fully express the sadness we feel for you.

A fine man, husband and father leaves many memories for each one of you.

Hearts are broken. Grief is what you feel now. May your personal memories sustain you until Jehovah's Grand Promises are fulfilled.

Please accept our love and sympathy for your loss.

Philia,

Carol, Vincent and Amy
