“ Occh was a great friend and teammate in Purina Mills always willing to help anyone in need. I have very fond memories of times spent with Occh at meetings, in his home and numerous phone conversations over the years. I especially remember a time when we were visiting Jackson, MS over the Thanksgiving holiday and had no plans for Thanksgiving, Occh and Chick invited us to spend the day with them and we had a great dinner and wonderful afternoon visiting in their home. He will surely be missed. God's Blessing to the family.

“ Occh was and will continue to be a big part of our Harley family! He will be dearly missed by both of us. I will especially miss all his interesting stories and him sitting on the bench outside the Harley shop and our many lunches together as a group. You are missed!!!
