“ I have a lot of beautiful memories about my mother, And I will share some. One memory that will stay in my mind for the rest of my life is this obituary that was written about her. I say this because it's simply is not true ,it is not how she felt it would not be her words, it is someone else's words. I have to deal with that mentally and be a strong person because like my son said to me they are just words. They're not from Granny, And we know how she felt truly inside. I had something written but I was not able to Share it. I would like to say a few things about how I feel. My mother was born in Detroit , But she lived most of her life in New Orleans a place she truly truly loved. A place where she met the man that she loved more than anything. She raised Sandra, Bobby, Mike, and myself in this beautiful city she called home. She helped me with all of my problems in life, And never judged me, or stopped loving me no matter what. She was always there for both my sons Billy and Jason, And they are so grateful to have been a part of her life. She loved them very much, no matter what. My grandchildren Laylah and Little Jason had so many wonderful times with her when she was with us, and they are very heartbroken to see her go. My mother meant everything to me, and noe a piece of me is gone, and nothing will ever be the same. You see, My family and I don't have everything, and our lives are very different from our other family members. But, we still feel with all of our hearts, we still hurt like everyone else. My mother knew this 91 years old or not, she never forgot. She wasn't at her best memory wise, but she would have never ever pushed us to the side, she never did. I loved her more than anyone, and I know she would say this to me like she did everytime I seen her. I love you my beautiful Daughter, don't worry, and I would say I love you too My beautiful mother. Because I'm straight forward and real, that's from my heart. These are not even a drop of my memories.
