

Artie Mae Gill Addison Reynolds

April 4, 1927 - January 7, 2015

Artie Mae Gill Addison Reynolds

Artie Mae, age 87, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family on Wednesday, January 7, 2015. She retired from the Livingston Parish Clerk of Court's office after 20 years of service, and she was a member of the Eastern Star. Being a devoted and faithful mother, grandmother, and wife as well as a loyal and unfailing sister and friend were just a few of her many virtues. Artie Mae loved the many years of traditional afternoon coffees with her steadfast and lifelong pals and her cats. Her personality was spirited, her presence enormous, and her impact irreplaceable.

Artie Mae is survived by her daughter, Dorothy Addison and husband Clifton "Sonny" Wascom, Jr.; son, Van Alsay Addison; and sisters, DeLois Gill Hutchinson and Jackie Gill Whitehead. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Jodi Hamilton, Brandie Hamilton Olsen, Krystal Wascom, Tara Addison, Alicia Sharp, Cliff Wascom, Ryan Wascom, and eight great-grandchildren; step-daughter, Carolyn Reynolds.

She is preceded in death by her first husband, Alsay A. Addison; second husband, Joe Reynolds; parents, Jack and Clarice McDonald Gill; sister, Joyce Gill Martin; and grandson, Bradley Van Addison.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Friday January 9, 2015 from 10:00 a.m. until the service at 12:00 p.m. Bro. Charles Elzey will officiate the service and interment will follow in Courtney Cemetery.
