“ I have so many precious memories of my mom. I was with my dad when he took his last breath and I was with mama when she took her last breath. It's so hard to deal with her death. She was my best friend. I lived next to her and cooked for my parents all the time. I love you mama!! I miss you so much!!

“ Miss Audrey was one of the kindest and most gentle professionals ever to work with the public. She could have written the book on how to treat people, causing each individual to feel special both at work and/or in her personal life. She will continued to be missed and never forgotten.
