Austin Emile Fletcher

Austin peacefully went to his heavenly home on Saturday, February 9, 2019 at the young age of 92. He was a faithful member of Blood River Baptist Church. Austin made sure to never miss an Albany Hornets Football game. He was a talented mechanic at Charlie's Texaco in Albany for over 27 years. Austin enjoyed car races and often thought he was a racecar driver when he would drive around town. He had a quick wit about him and loved to make people laugh. Austin is already deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his nieces and nephews, Elsie, Ronnie, Shelia, Donald, Jamey, Joey, Bridget, Debbie, Curtis, Cheryl, Ricky, Robbie, Rhonda, Randy, Rita, and Chuck; as well as numerous great, great-great, and even great-great-great nieces and nephews.

Austin is preceded in death by his parents, James and Ollie Hoyt Fletcher; siblings, James "Sugar Boy", Huey, Archie, Kenny, Homer Lee Fletcher, and Evy Rogers; and nephews, Pete and Remy Fletcher.

“ To the Fletcher family, I am so sorry to hear about uncle Austin. I wish I could be with you for his home going but I still stuck in Oklahoma. My brother is still in the hospital right now. Know y'all will be in my prayers. May God give you strength, peace, and comfort.
