

Bailee D. Winters

October 27, 1997 - June 29, 2015

Bailee Winters

Beautiful, intelligent, vibrant, well-loved young Christian woman, who left this earthly life to be with her eternal father; Bailee, age 17 was a member of Calvary Christian and was very active, loved to sing in the church and school choir and help with the kids in Bible school. Bailee attended Hahnville High School and was the videographer for the football and basketball teams; she just finished her junior year of high school and had plans to attend college after graduation to earn her degree in Sociology. She was caring, loving, spiritual and will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

Bailee is survived by her parents, Harold and Michelle Winters; maternal grandparents, Mary and Richard Cannon; brother, Trey Michael McCoy; sisters, Jennifer Parks, Mallory Winters, Destiny Farr Rodriguez, Nikita Farr Rodriguez; cousins, Brandon and Makayla McCoy; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and her three beloved cats.

Bailee is preceded in death by her great-grandmother, Mary N. Cannon; great-grandfather, Herbert "Pops" Blanchard; aunt, Melody Leigh McCoy.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Friday July 3, 2015, with visitation beginning at 10:00 a.m. until the Celebration of Life Service at 1:00 p.m. Rev. Mike Bush will officiate the service and interment will follow in Holly Gardens Cemetery.

“ Sitting at the back of the bus with your headphones in, you stare at me as i get into my seat waiting for that smart comment everyday. I miss busting out laughing for no reason and your beautiful voice. Fly high because now you have the wings that match your voice. You will most definitely be missed baby girl
