

Benjamin "Ben" Oliver Thompson

July 30, 1939 - December 21, 2023

Benjamin "Ben" Oliver Thompson peacefully crossed into Heaven on Thursday, December 21, 2023 at the distinguished age of 84. Ben was born in Noxapater, MS but resided in Tickfaw, LA for 45 years with his beloved wife, Lucille Tycer Thompson. Ben served his country dutifully as a Rifleman in the Army National Guard from 1956 to 1961. Mr. Ben (as many in the community knew him) worked more than 55 years in retail, retiring from both Walmart and Lowes of Hammond, LA. After retirement Ben worked at Circle A Hardware of Albany, LA. Ben was a devoted husband and father who enjoyed Saints football, puzzles, woodworking and being outdoors.

He is preceded in death by his birth parents, Willie Hilhouse and Annie Lee Nowell, adoptive parents, Gregory Lewis Thompson and Eunice Moreland, brothers Tommy Thompson and Bobby McElroy, daughter Kayla Noel Thompson, and grandson, Terrell G. Rogers.

Ben's darling wife, Lucille Tycer Thompson, 85, went to be with him in Heaven just 20 hours after Ben's passing.

He is survived by his sons Gregory Thompson and spouse Jenny, Robert Thompson and spouse Debi, daughters Devra White, Patricia Haston and Holly Watts and spouse Michael Kelly, sisters Linda Thompson, Nancy Haskins, Jennie Murphy and grandchildren Faith LoCicero Gafford, Zachary Rogers, Jarred Wrinkles, Brent Donoughe, Tyler Donoughe, Nicki Thompson, Ashley Thompson, Jessica Thompson, Michael-Lee Thompson and great-grandchildren, Camron Banks and Gabriella Gafford.

The family has opted for no service per Ben's wishes. A Celebration of Life ceremony will be scheduled at a time TBD.

Ben will be missed by many.

“ Ben was a good man excellent stepfather and especially good when it came to mama. He taught me how to drive, fish and even how to clean them. I could not had loved him more than if he were my own father. I loved him dearly and I'll always miss him. Till we meet again. I love you daddy. Give mama my love. Pat
