

Bernard "Tre" Alvin LeBlanc III

October 23, 1981 - September 25, 2015

Bernard "Tre" Alvin LeBlanc III

Tre', age 33, passed away at his home on Friday, September 25, 2015. He was an incredible person, who was nice and friendly to everyone he met. Tre' loved to watch movies and eat snacks, but the thing he loved the most was his wolf collection.

He is survived by his mother, Linda Faye Rogers and husband Ray Allen Gay; father, Bernard Alvin LeBlanc Jr. and wife Donna Strahan LeBlanc; sister, Lacey Lynn Miller; and brother, Shane Robert LeBlanc and wife Rena O'Quin. Tre' is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Annette and Bernard Alvin LeBlanc Sr.; maternal grandparents, Cleo Irene and Melvin Woodrow Rogers Sr.; uncle, Larry LeBlanc; and cousin, Laramie LeBlanc.

A private service will be held by the family at a later date.

Tribute Wall

SM

“ Dear Linda,

I was saddened to read of Tre's passing, but I know that your family shares so many loving memories of your time together. Even as a toddler I remember his sense of humor - he was definitely a child that brought smiles to the people in his life. Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss.

*Sue Mathes
TARC*

Sue Mathes - September 27, 2015 at 07:50 PM