“ My Dear Betty Witte, we have so many memories to cherish, you were a precious friend to me. I am sadden by your death but know this is what you wanted, I will never forget you. So many memories, I love you so much, that will never go away, as I write this tears are falling down my face, I will take care of your house for as long as possible, I know you wanted everything just right. I will be there for Bob, as I know you worry about him, he is hard headed like you said but I will do my best. Love you my sweet Betty, Ann
