

Bonnie Causey Gamso

March 2, 1950 - August 31, 2023

Bonnie, age 73, passed away surrounded by her loved ones on Thursday, August 31, 2023. She was a resident of Walker, Louisiana. Raised in New Orleans, Bonnie was a proud multi-hurricane survivor, even going without electricity and water for several months after Hurricane Katrina. She was an avid Judge Judy and Gunsmoke watcher, and it wasn't uncommon to hear her cheering on her favorite MMA fighters in the UFC fights on tv. She was as witty as they come, always making people laugh with no effort at all. Bonnie did beautiful floral design work and had a gift for home decorating. When Bonnie sold a home, there would be many offers from buyers to buy the house just as it was, because they knew it could never look as beautiful as it did with her touch. She was an amazing cook, and even though everybody wanted her prized recipes, she kept a tight grip on them. Bonnie took being a mother, big sister, and aunt seriously and her family was her number one priority. She was a loving woman who will be forever missed. She fought a long, hard battle, but she's walking hand in hand with our Lord and Savior.

She is survived by her daughter, Mandy Breshears (Joshua); sister, Lisa Hampton (Kevin); niece, Mariah Hampton; and nephews, Morgan Hampton and Matthew Hampton.

Bonnie is preceded in death by her son, Darin Causey; mother, Rose Paul Brai; father, William Lois Causey; and stepfather, Joseph Brai.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend a visitation from the Chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, 7738 Florida Boulevard, Denham Springs, Louisiana on Friday, September 29, 2023, from 5:00 p.m. until the start of the Memorial Service at 5:30 p.m. A Celebration of Life, with Bonnie's favorite foods and drinks, will follow in the Magnolia Room at 6:30 p.m.

“ Bonnie had a way of making you feel comfortable and loved upon first meeting. She was smart, charismatic and oh-so funny.

Two of my fondest memories of her were...

1. The day I learned she carried a pool noodle in her car in case there was a flash flood.

2. The night before she sold her home in Texas I called Mandy to check on the status of her packing. To say Mandy was frantic is an understatement but unless my memory fails me, she said there were just a few more items to pack, so Mike and I volunteered to help. A few more items in a one bedroom condo would probably just take a couple of hours, right?

Neither of us knew what was awaiting us. “A few more items” was most of the home (furniture fit for a 4 bedroom home) and all of those items needed to be wrapped in plastic stretch wrap and some with bubble wrap.

It was a night of chaos.

Under Bonnie's supervision and keen eye for detail, many panicked looks were exchanged behind semi-wrapped furniture that night. The night felt 48 hrs long and although there certainly wasn't any laughter then, there sure is laughter now.

I remember Mandy was exhausted and frustrated but never faltered and didn't cut corners (until we mercifully ran out of wrap) because she wanted to make her mom happy.

Mandy always wanted to make her mom happy and she did that until the very end. The bond they shared was beautiful and powerful. They were blessed to have the relationship they did.

When I think of Bonnie, I think of the affect she left on those around her. She dazzled us with her beauty and charm and is now dazzling Heaven. XOXO
