

Brandi Ann Core

January 4, 1984 - April 13, 2025

Brandi Ann Core, age 41, passed away on April 12, 2025, in Hammond, Louisiana. Born on January 4, 1984, also in Hammond, Brandi lived her life with a vibrant spirit and a fierce love for her family.

Brandi was known to many by her nicknames “B” and “Brandi Ann,” and she carried herself with a fiery energy that left an impression wherever she went. She had a passion for the simple joys in life—spending time with her loved ones, shopping for just the right find, decorating her space and most of all cleaning, and treating herself to getting her nails and hair done. These were more than hobbies; they were expressions of her personality—full of life.

She is lovingly remembered by her mother, Tammy Kling (Okie); her daughters Samantha Fisher (Robby), Brooklynn, and Rylei; and her cherished grandchildren Robert Fisher Jr., known as “TRob,” and Waylon. Brandi’s sister Victoria Arnone (Chris), brother Devin Gray, five nephews, and three nieces also hold dear the memories they shared with her.

Brandi was preceded in death by her grandfather Sonny Core, grandmother Evelyn Core, father Will Core, sister Jacy Core, and brother Brett Core. Their memories remain part of the tapestry of Brandi’s life story.

To those who knew Brandi best, she was a firecracker—strong-willed yet deeply loving. Her family remembers her as gentle and kind beneath a tough exterior shaped by pride and pain. She faced personal struggles with quiet resilience and often downplayed her own needs out of concern for others. In her own words: “Other people have it worse,” or “I got it, don’t worry” That strength—sometimes stubborn but always sincere—is what made Brandi perfectly imperfect.

Her family asks that when remembering Brandi, you look beyond the hardships she faced. See instead the woman who loved fiercely, laughed loudly, decorated joyfully, and never missed a chance to make someone feel special—even if she was running fashionably late while doing it.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Wednesday, April 23, 2025, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Victory In Christ Church located at 26012 Highway 42 in Holden, Louisiana (70744)

The burial will follow at park lawn cemetery in Ponchatoula La. Afterwards we would like to invite everyone to join us for fellowship located at Victory In Christ Church where the services were held.

In true Brandi fashion—being on time wasn’t exactly her strong suit—so if you arrive a little late, know that she’d probably laugh right along with you. That was just her style.

May Brandi’s memory bring comfort to those who knew and loved her.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

APR 23. 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM (CT)

Victory In Christ
26012 Hwy 42
Holden, LA 70744

Tribute Wall

AB

“ Me & Brandi met in 7th grade and were fast friends!! Shortly after we were inseparable! I loved her outgoing personality ole crazy self! We got drunk & rolled down the hill at leisure landing. Bon fires, riding around shinning and dancing until they carried us home! She was a beautiful soul full of life & love! We just got bk in touch after life took us in different directions! It was just like old times and I will cherish those moments forever!! I love you my girl and will miss you so much!!

Andrea Brown - April 22, 2025 at 11:42 PM

MP

“ Praying for the family and everyone who had the pleasure of knowing our sweet Brandi. I met her in middle school and always felt comfortable around her and I remember finding out she was a young mom in school and I was so intrigued by how great she was doing as a mother and a teen in school. She was taken too soon. Will be missed but never forgotten! 🙏❤️

Melissa Phillips - April 17, 2025 at 09:04 AM

AB

Oh how I wish I could be there! Just know my spirit is there with y'all! I have cried sense I got the call! I'm absolutely devastated reading this! My heart goes out to Mantha, Mrs. Tammy & Tory + everyone else who loved her just as much!! I love y'all and will continue to pray for peace & comfort. 💕😭🙏💔

Andrea Brown - April 22, 2025 at 11:35 PM