“ Linda and Dalton, you both know that you are a part of our family. Not family by blood, but family born of sharing in each others lives. We've all been close for a very long time. Brandon was a special young man and we will miss his smile, his laugh, and his humor. We will let his memory live on in our lives. We will remember the good times and we can smile. We may cry because we miss him but we can rejoice knowing that we will see him again. He has made it to where we all want to be...in the arms of Jesus. We are here for you no matter what you need. We will all be there to help yall get through the tough days ahead. Remember..Trust in the Lord with ALL your heart, lean not on your own understanding and HE will direct your path. Love u both so much. Lisa,Lou,Jordan,JJ,Caleb and Gabbi###imported-begin##Kim Tompkins##imported-end##

“ We're sorry to hear about Brandon. He was a wonderful young man. Always polite and respectful. He often would come to church with our son. We saw him a few months ago, he was telling us how he and his little family were trying to live for the Lord after having gone through some trying times. I know that you have heard this a hundred times, but sincerely, if you need anything please simply ask and we will do what we can. Often in times such as this we ask why? But there is not anything that any of us could have done or said to change anything. Brandon is now safely with the Great and Almighty God. Rest and be at peace, assured that when it is any of our time to go and God calls us home that Brandon will be there, having been waiting patiently with arms open wide to greet you. Brandon has now made it to his true home. This world that we are in is simply a temperary place, a place we are until our God calls us to our permanent home. A place where there is no more sorrow, no more pain, all guilt and shame are gone, no tears, no bills, streets of gold, mansions that have been built just for us, people worshipping their creator all day, doesn't this sound like a place we all want to be! Brandon is now there sheltered safely in the arms of God. Truly in Christ.##imported-begin##Lisa and Lou Serigny##imported-end##
