Jan 20th 2014*

Me Mawmaw Pawpaw

Aunt Amanda & Buffy & Billy was all their with you when you came home on hospice at 5:00pm we was all in the room talking and keeping you company

Then everyone decided to leave around 10's and we continue to do prayers like every night

Everyone kissed you before I did bc I always wanted to have the last kiss from you my sweet baby boy 🍷

But on this day Mawmaw gave you a kiss and you took your deep breath and that was the last time you was living 😭😭

I called Aunt Cindy over to see if it really happen and it did I was in shocked and didn't want to believe it

We called Uncle Joejoe

And Aunt B and they came over to see you one last time also son I gave you a bath and rubbed lotion all over you and sprayed colon on you also dressed you up in your pajamas

And waited for the corner to come to the house and was carrying you out we turned on the tv and this was the song playing Live like you were dying I carried you all the way outside

And after they took you from me I broke down crying bc a big part of my life was gone to

Heaven to be a Angel

I miss and love you always son may you have a peaceful life

“ My sincere condolences to Braxton's family. I know you will miss him immensely. I hope that God's promise of the resurrection of our loved ones, along with your cherished memories, will give you comfort at this difficult time. (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15) Look forward to the fulfillment of God's original purpose for mankind and the earth, when we can live forever on a peaceful earth along with our loved ones, when even death will be no more! (Psalm 37:10,11,29; Rev.21:4) God always fulfills his promises.
