Wow that was nice. I haven't see Bryan since he went back down south, to the place that he told me was like heaven. There were many times where he would joke around and tell me that I spell my name wrong. and everytime we worked together we called each other "B" --- Bryan was a hard worker and he always had a smile on his face. I'd like to think that Bryan's soul may have gone to heaven, but his spirit and energy will forever be in the Bayou. Rest In Peace B

“ Sharing one memory is impossible. Camping trips, pocono races, shore trips, backyard bbqs, kids hanging out and life being lived. Laughs beyond tears my friend, that still and will always make me crack up, when I think of your stories. Always giving and willing to help anyone. One day we'll see each other again, so until then Billybob we'll remember you with love ❤️ Peace to you

“ So many Pocono memories with Bryan, he was the best. One time he was way out in the infield as we launched water balloons toward him, he ran up and took one right in the head, it brought him to his knees and it blew a hole in his straw hat. Crazy Billybob, we will miss you, my friend!
