“ When Cammie was born it was like God dropped a precious stone from Heaven into the pool of Humanity. And when she splashed down into this pool her existence made a ripple that touch everyone in its path in the pool. That was how her life connected with all that knew her. What you need to remember is this, the Earth is lighter because she is no longer standing on it. And her existence and absence has changed the world. Amen and well done Cammie. Love you and will miss you..Roz
