“ Your infectious laughter, shiney red hair, love of others, and life itself will continue to live in every memory and heart you touched. While your time with us was shorter than expected, you remain with everyone that knew you with love. God has chosen you to be an angel to watch over your loving family. Oh our sweet and dearly loved friend that was also loved like family. That red hair, bright eyes and huge smile has and will always be in our memories and hearts. May you be the angel that watches over your dear wife and children. You are all the good in a child, no matter your age, that any parent would be proud to call their son. Our sincere condolence to all of your loving family. Evelyn and Greg Manteris

“ CJ was such a great face to see when I was on the AO4 site at Shell. He was trying hard to cook new healthier dishes and would share his new recipes each time he created something new and delicious. I will think of him even more now I cook the things he shared. What a happy guy gone way too soon. Our prayers go out for his family and loved ones.
