“ Thinking of you tonight, actually all day, wishing I could be home for the service and your family....We shared so much many years ago and in recent years not as much as I wish we had. The only consolation is I got a chance to see you recently AND most importantly, you made a very important decision to accept Christ into your heart and His light shown through your eyes every time I have seen you in recent years. That brings me great joy...because I can truly say it is NOT "Good bye" but rather, "See you later...on the other side...never to part again." I love you friend as you and Ronnie are the rare kind of friends...the kind that time and distance never changes things as we just pick up right where we left off. I pray for Ronnie and Heath and all that loved you..it will be a while before they get to the new normal...I pray the peace of Christ over all of them as they journey on towards that reunion in Heaven.

So very sorry for the grief you are feeling in your hearts at the sudden loss of such a vibrant and loving wife, Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Aunt, Sister, and friend. While she was out of the lime light in recent years, she has a rich history of a life well lived. Ronnie has been such a rock and loving caretaker and my heart breaks for such an incredible hole that he must feel in his heart, that her passing has caused. If any of you need anything, please reach out to me...I only have Carol's cell number or I would reach out directly to you.
Much love....(((HUGS))) from far away.

My heart aches for all the family and friends who must also still be in shock at her sudden passing. She endured so much, but now I truly believe she is finally at peace. I will miss our private Facebook "visits." My prayers for Ronnie and the rest of the family. Cheryl Twickler.
