“ My "li" sister, my love for you will never end and our friendship will endure. I wasn't able to visit you for a while but you were and will continue to be in my prayers. The lifetime of memories remain vivid, especially things like when you were my homecoming dance date when I was in the 9th grade. I didn't think freshmen on the football team were supposed to go to the dance but you insisted. My classmates asked me for weeks who the beautiful girl was that I took to the dance. My life is full of those kinds of memories.

Say hi to Mom and Dad and all the rest of our family. We'll all be together one day. Oh, and if you run into Jesus, put in a good word for me. I need all of them I can get.

Summer, Desiree, Angeli, Neil.

I'm so sorry I couldn't be there for the memorial. I would give you all the reasons but they would sound like excuses. Just know that I know you're all going through a tough time right now, but only time will make it more acceptable - not easier - it never gets easier.

Know too, that I loved Carolyn, CJ, Cally and all the other variables of her name. She was more than a sister. She was one of my really true friends, and I miss her. I have missed her for some time but it seems I was never able to connect.

God's blessings for you all and for your dear mom and my dear friend.

“ Summer, Desiree, Angeli and Neil, I have fond memories of being your Aunt when you were quite young and of spending time with Carolyn. You, too, will have many fond memories of your mother to share with your children and grandchildren. My love and prayers are with you. Jo Busby
