Carrie Sue Swafford Everett

She was free-spirited, lived her life by her rules, loved gardening, cake decorating and taking on new adventures. Carrie's father has many memories of them fishing together. Carrie met the love of her life a few years ago and said their wedding vows on December 13, 2014, when she married her best friend and soul mate Kenneth Everett. “ *To my dear sweet little sister:
Where do I even start and how do I even begin to express my sadness. Words could never say enough about you, how much I love you or just how much I miss you. You are the most caring, kind and loving person I know. You lived by your own rules and I love that you had the courage to do that. You never let anything hold you back from doing what you wanted to do. You are much stronger than I could ever be. You faced struggles and road blocks your entire life but you always pushed thru them and made the best of it. I'm so thankful for Kenneth and the happiness he brought to you. I thank God that he thought enough of me that he blessed me with you. Even though it was only for 39 years, those years I will cherish for the rest of my life. This is not goodbye but til we meet again. Loving you always and forever!*

“ I don't really know what to say...Carrie Dear, I haven't seen you since you were a teen, but I remember what a happy young lady you were. Always smiling, and marching to the beat of your own drum...I remember the beautiful red hair, and how it suited you so well..

You are in heaven now, and you have some wonderful family members there to show you around.. I know you are happy up there with our family!! When you look down on us, I know you will be smiling..

You will be missed, and know, the people you left behind, love you forever and always..

“ My sweet cousin, what is there to say expect that I love you and will miss you terribly. I will miss your infectious laugh and your teasing ways. I will always remember the last funny interaction we had at Walmart....I love and respect that you were YOU. That you never let anyone persuade you to be who you weren't. That you didn't care if people liked your choices...you were hard headed and strong willed. I love that. I'm glad you and Andy were so close and were able to be yourselves with each other and talk about anything and everything. I'm glad my grandson got to know you and how loving and caring you were. I'm going to miss you terribly. So happy I told you awhile back how I truly felt about you and warms my heart that it touched you so deeply. I am/was so proud of the woman you had become and how caring and loving you were to your husband, father-in-law and brother-in-law. You took good care of all of them. God took you way too soon honey and that is breaking my heart and tearing me to pieces. I love you so much sweet girl. Til we see each other again....

“ I adore red headed kids. You were a roly poly red headed cutie pie when you were little. I remember your grandparents fiftieth and how you ran up and hugged me when you saw me . Made me feel so welcome. I remember your Uncle John taking y'all to Slidell for trick or treat. You've had a tough row to hoe as an adult, life can be tough, but you've had a large and loving family. Tell Brenda and Miss Sue hello for me.

“ This one time, I was at the farm with you and a lot of the family and I remember my grammy asking me to check her mail... So I did... Upon opening the mailbox a frog jumped out...scared me half to death(I still do not like to open mail boxes) anyways, I remember you were right there and you laughed so hard but you comforted me because I was sincerely shocked... I am really sorry that I never spent as much time with you as I should have... I am regretting alot right now...but I know one thing, I will always remember your smiling face and your laugh. It was so hard to get the call, all the calls... It just seems so unfair and I want you to know that I love you... You have always been my aunt and always will be... please kiss my daddy for me... and you can even send frogs in mailboxes to let me know you're with me(:

“ My little Care-Bear, I have called you that since you were a little baby. I was there when you were born and watched you grow. We loved when your imagination kicked in when you were three years old and boy could you tell the stories about your "imagination school". You had every kind of animal in your school and you were teaching them everything. It was so funny to listen to. You loved all of God's creatures, especially those horrid little roley poley bugs you used to carry around with you and you tried to scare me with lizards all the time. You have one of the biggest hearts of anyone I know, sweet and loving, caring and compassionate. I am so glad you had a couple years of pure happiness with Kenneth. Your 90 year old papa was so happy he got to be at your wedding. Carrie, there are to many wonderful memories to be listed here but I have no doubt in my mind that you loved me and that you knew how much I loved you, my sweet little redheaded niece. Rest in peace sweet Care-Bear. Hug my mom and your mom and GGMa for me until I can get there to do it myself. Love, aunt Linda Haskell

“ *Carrie Sue,
Still hard to comprehend, my dear cousin. You had your shares of ups and downs on this earth. I am so happy you found happiness and your prince charming in Kenneth. And even if for a brief time you had your fairy tale, Hug your mama, Grandma Sue and GG Ma for me. I will miss you. Tammy Sue*
