“ I am sorry fo your loss. Mrs. Trotter was a very dear friend to my sister, Elaine Borer Strain. I remember visiting her with Elaine many times. Mrs. Trotter was one of the most important people in Elaine's life. She was friend and mentor to Elaine. Elaine passed away 2 years ago. I am sorry to say I put off going to see Mrs. Trotter, to tell her myself that I am thankful to her for being such a "wonderful friend" to Elaine and for loving her the way she did. I know without a doubt, Elaine loved her dearly. I know you were Blessed to call her "family". Elaine was Blessed to call her, "friend". May God give peace in your time of loss and fill your hearts with the joy of precious memories of Mrs. Trotter.##imported-begin##Marvee Borer##imported-end##

“ It was a pleasure to get to know "Miss" Catherine. For many years now I would go and pick up her car for service. I always say I drove "Miss" Catherine's car more than she did. Anyhow God bless her! I enjoyed her chicken salad which she shared with me sometimes and I have a pretty little pink cup with a hummingbird she gave me! I know she is reunited with her sweetheart...##imported-begin##Glenda Sharkey w/Bill Hood Ford Lincoln##imported-end##
