“ Sharon,
Simone and I are heartbroken about your loss. We spoke with Chad very seldom in the past, but it was obvious that he loved his dad, his wife and children, and you very much. And, he was just like Tommy in so many ways -- a tribute to how you raised him. A fine and humble young man. We can not help but think that he is with Tommy now. Even though your family and our family have been thousands of miles apart all these years, we still think of you often (especially the memories of my closest teenage friend and partner in "shenanigans" - Tommy). Since learning of Chad's passing, Simone and I have been praying for you and Brianne everyday. God Bless you and be with you.

David and I are heart broken about your loss. Please know that both of you and your girls are in our thoughts and prayers. We have known Chad - OMG, probably most of his life. He always had kind words, a big ol' bear hug, and a huge smile to greet you no matter how long it had been. That huge smile always got to you and made you smile too.

I wish there was something I could say that would help you through this pain. If you need anything - please let us know.

“ I send my deepest condolences to his family. Me and Chad played football at Hammond Junior High together. We remained great friends after that. Every time I saw him I teased him about smiling so much. I asked him was he born with a permanent smile or something but that was just his personality. Such a humble guy and a great personality something that's very rare. I will always hold on to the memory of a great friend. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. May God give great strength to this wonderful family.
