

Charles Edgar Carr

August 2, 1938 - July 11, 2023

Charles Edgar Carr Sr., better known as Chuck to his friends and flight students, passed away Tuesday, July 11th 2023 in Hammond LA at the age of 85. The Carr family were long time residents of Enterprise AL where Mr Carr was a dedicated and passionate helicopter instructor pilot at Fort Rucker AL and heralded by all who met him as one of the best. Once Charles retired from the military, he went on to teach for the civil service, finally retiring for good at the age 74. He is survived by his daughter Kathryn Reneé Wire (Alfred), his son Charles Edgar Carr Jr, and three grandsons Douglas Ryan Rombough (Madison), Charles Reed Rombough (Carmen) and David Rory Carr-Wire (Hanna). Charles was the son of Annabelle Goodnight and Charles Lewis Carr, grand son of Alma Best Goodnight and Johnny Marion Goodnight. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 60 years Mary Kathryn Carr who passed February 18th 2023. Their love will continue now in the spirit realm.

Tribute Wall

JP

“ My parents were friends with your parents in Germany in the 60's. Mike and Judy Bell. Mom asked me to track down Chuck and Mary Catherine and I was sad to report back to her that I found them here. She talks about them often and has such great memories of your whole family! She is sending her condolences ❤️

Jennifer Privette - October 23, 2023 at 04:21 PM

DH

“ To " Bubba" and Catherine, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you as you grieve the loss of your father. We understand the loss. God bless you all.
The children of J.B. and Peggy "Carr" Harpole. (Dennis, Wayne and Delores)

Dennis Harpole - July 13, 2023 at 10:26 PM

JP

My parents were friends with your parents in Germany in the 60's. Mike and Judy Bell. Mom asked me to track down Chuck and Mary Catherine and I was sad to report back to her that I found them here. She talks about them often and has such great memories of your whole family! She is sending her condolences ❤️

Jennifer Privette - October 23, 2023 at 04:21 PM