“ I'm so sad on my birthday this year, today. I miss you my daddy. I still can't believe you're gone. We have tons of wonderful memories with you and momma that we will forever treasure. You were the best daddy in The whole entire world. I love and miss you dearly.

“ Daddy will always be in my heart. We had many memories over the years from going on house calls to fix TVs, to me staring him down in his tv shop trying to figure out what he was doing, sharing many dances together over the years, helping out at Bingo at the American Legion, and helping him as much as I could as he began to age. I’m very thankful my children had the privilege of knowing him, because he is a wonderful person. Love you always Daddy. ”

“ I have so many memories of this beautiful family and staying with them for an extended period of time. Two stand out about Mr. Charles. The first is the time I was sick and he made soup for me. The second is at my wedding when he danced with my husband as a joke. I know that are both in heaven laughing together at that moment.

Daddy, I miss you soo much. It just hurts to think they I'll never get to see you again with your happy smile. I loved to make you happy. My husband loves you as well.. he was so proud when you told him that he is like a son to him. We looked forward to your Thursday or Friday afternoon call wanting to know where me, you, momma and Shannon wanted to go out to eat. It really wasn't the food, but more, getting you and momma out of the house to do something fun with us. We love you so much and miss you.
