

Charles 'Don' Donald Smoak

October 30, 1943 - February 23, 2018

Charles Donald “Don” Smoak

Passed away on February 23, 2018 at his home in Hammond, Louisiana. He was born in Savannah, Georgia and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Mississippi. In his younger years, he worked for his father’s construction company then for BET Construction in Thibadoux, Louisiana retiring as Senior Vice President. He was an avid hunter, fisherman, and gun enthusiast. He also loved lifting weights and pushing the limits. He was a big, strong, hardworking man who loved God and his family.

He is preceded in death by his daughter, Elizabeth Courtenay “Courte” Smoak and his sister, Elizabeth “Beth” Smoak Woodard.

He leaves behind his wife, Carol Smoak, of eight years; his mother, Clara Louise Craven; his son and daughter-in-law, Charles Donald “Sonny” Smoak, Jr. and Julie Jolissant Smoak; his grandsons, Cooper Hollis Smoak, Garrett Jefferson Smoak, and Logan Charles Smoak.

Tribute Wall

GS

“ We at Bill Hood Ford Lincoln are saddened to learn of the passing of Mr. Smoak. God Bless and comfort all of his family.

Glenda Sharkey - March 01, 2018 at 10:48 PM