“ The World needs more people like Elmer in it today.. Hard working, full of fun and one hell of a dancer. We both grew up on a dairy farm and loved the outdoors. It is hard to imagine the world without him.
RIP until we meet again

“ Debbie, Dutch, Eddie, George and family...Was saddened to read of Elmer's passing! I worked with him a lifetime ago at CNB in Amite. I never saw him angry or without a smile. The last time I saw him which was several years back he reminded me of when we played a practical joke on him. We put For Sale and his phone number with white shoe polish on the windows of his aging Ford F150 while he went off fishing with his buddies. His phone rang off the hook! He loved that old white Ford truck and said he was never getting rid of it laughing each time he took a call about it! Good natured he was! The last time I saw him he also reminded me of towing a boat he picked up and he looked back and boat wasn't there. God Bless you all. He surely must be entertaining the angels.
