“ Lyndon sure will be missed. I enjoyed so much getting to visit with him the past few years at the dove hunts. I feel like no matter what we talked about, he always brought the conversation back to how proud he was of all of his kids and grandkids. I wish we could be there with you all during this time.

“ One of the most fun vacations was when we all went to Florida together. Uta was with us, so it had to be like 1978-79. We went to New Orleans, Bourbon Street, then to Florida. We rented a condo on the beach. Rode the trolley in Nee Orleans, witnessed plainclothes cops nab a pickpocket, had coffee and binnets, ate seafood.... Cherish the good memories.

“ Lyndon and Mauryce and their family have been my friends since they started attending Bethlehem Baptist Church over 40 years ago. We love them and will be here for them. In this time of sorrow, we know there is joy because Lyndon is at peace now in a much better place. Ruth Martin
