Charles Robeson Travelbee III (“Roby”)

October 3, 1952 – March 30, 2026

Charles Robeson Travelbee III, known to most as “Roby,” passed away on March 30, 2026, at the age of 73.

Roby’s life cannot be defined by any one chapter. He was a man of creativity and grit; a man who created, who built, who connected, and who, in his own way, left a lasting mark on the people and places he touched. He had a way of creating something meaningful out of what was in front of him, whether it was the ground he grew things from or the people he brought together. He will be remembered not just for what he did, but for who he was beneath it all.

He is survived by his wife, Judy Dominguez Travelbee; his sister, Karen Travelbee Richardson and her husband, Jim; and his daughters, Ara Travelbee Forrest and her husband, Charlie, Amber Marie Ledet and her husband, Cory, and Amanda Travelbee.

Roby was a proud grandfather and great-grandfather. He is survived by his grandchildren Trevor Forrest; Cody Gainey and Keira Morvant along with their children Allison and Avery; Katelyn Wyatt and her husband William along with their children Kollins and Sawyer; Benjamin Gainey and his wife, Maria “Ellie” Gainey; Chloe and Cory Ledet; Bryce and Brennan Wilkens; Reed, Luke, and Anna Thompson.

He is also survived by his stepdaughter, Jessica Reed Trosclair, and her son, Wyatt Trosclair.

He will be deeply missed and carried forward in the lives of those who love him. A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
