“ I'm missing you Big Brother. Will always miss your wonderful sense of humor that you demonstrated when we were young by not getting mad when we called you "Bones". You were so skinny we always said you had to jump around in the shower to get wet. You took it well. I'll miss your kindness and generosity to everyone. You never met a stranger. Thank you for teaching Will and Austin how to fish. They'll never forget you even though they hated getting up in the dark to go with you. I'll miss your fish fry birthday parties that you threw every July 18th. You are forever in my heart.
