“ I am very sorry for your loss. Death is the opposite of life. That is why death is something we will never get use to. With that being said, Jehovah God will rid it forever (Isaiah 25:8). Then he return this back to a beautiful paradise the way he intends it be from the very beginning. Hope this brings you comfort and pesce.

“ I am so sorry to read about Cheryl's passing in the newspaper today. My daughter had a baby this week and that's kept us busy. I regret missing the wake and funeral.

My name is Devery Pierce; my sister is Donna Kay Sanderson; and my Mom was Carolyn Sanderson. Donna and Cheryl went to school together. This dates WAY back to when Ms. Cherry and Cheryl lived on the street that is now "under" the interstate in North Baton Rouge. Mom and Ms. Cherry were good friends and I would go to visit with my mom. I don't believe I was even old enough to go to school. But I remember Cheryl and the connection between her and her mom. Although a child, that is an impression that stayed with me.

Through the years I have thought of Cheryl often and wondered whether she had adjusted well when she lost her Mom. I'm hoping that she was in the NOW SIL program, as Donna is now, because she loved people and that program keeps them in the community and gives our families needed rest time.

Please know that neither Ms. Cherry nor Cheryl will be forgotten.
