“ My favorite memory of Cheryl is to remember her as a cowgirl, riding her horse bareback, not afraid of another broken arm!! She would run, jump on her horse, take off wide open, black hair flying behind, pure joy of her face. Our hunting trips on the pipeline in North LA were awesome, of course her getting her deer! Say hello to all our loved ones for me with a big hug.

“ So impressive this woman was! I worked with her for several years and she was truly my "buddy". Favorite memory though...when I had my boys with me to stop by the office and they saw a snake in the grass so Cheryl ran to her car, pulled out a shotgun and popped the head right off! Those boys were so darn impressed.....frankly so was I. All my love to the Stewart family. I'll be seeing you in paradise Cheryl.

“ I only spoke to Cheryl on the phone when she called for Jessica. Since Jessica & I only "see" each other on Facebook, I've seen Cheryl with her family through pictures & comments. It is so obvious how much love was shared between Cheryl & her family. She will be missed. I know Jessica will let her children know how much their grandmother was devoted to them. My prayers are for all of you. Rest in peace, Cheryl.
