

Christopher "Hollywood" North

June 28, 1991 - December 22, 2015

Christopher "Hollywood" Wayne North

Chris, age 24, earned his angel wings on Tuesday, December 22, 2015. He was a native and resident of Holden, La. Chris was a hero to the core, who began his passion for helping people, at the young age of 14 after he joined the Livingston Parish District 10 Fire Department as a firefighter, then first responder and was promoted to EMS Captain, the youngest in the departments history. His dedication to helping others drove him to earn his Paramedic certifications, and fell in love with his job with Acadian Ambulance Services. Chris was always willing to help anyone in need and was always there to make them laugh. He was the life of the party, whether it was at a Saints game, at the house, in his Ambulance, or in a firetruck, he was never seen without a big smile on his face. His charismatic personality and love for snapping photos with everyone at any moment earned him the name "Hollywood". Chris was a wonderful person who never met a stranger, and who never asked for anything and would give someone the shirt off of his back if they needed it. He will be dearly missed.

Chris is survived by his loving parents, Tracy and Patrick North; god child, Drew Ballard; grandparents, Linda Ladner, Joseph Guedry and wife Liz, and Agnes North; aunts, Rhonda Fontenot, Latanya Nadeau; uncle, Michael Guedry; special friends, Danelle Morell, Dorothy Harper, Krystal Conn,

“ I worked with Chris at Our Lady of the Lake in Walker. We both worked the night shift. His smile and humor brightened many nights!? I was saddened to hear he was gone from this life but I know he's in Heaven for Christmas. He wouldn't want any of us to be sad for too long! He would tell us to celebrate life and smile. Merry Christmas in Heaven Muffin?
