“ David, I have known you for 20 years. You are a great Christian example. Although I have never met your family, I know them through you. Your family has been through a great deal over the last couple of years. I'm sorry for all the losses all of you have experienced. I wish there was something I could do to make it easier. We've all lost someone close to us and I understand what you are feeling. I talked to a preacher who had died for a short period and went to heaven. He told what he experienced in those moments. As the preacher told his story, someone in the audience wondered if his deceased mother missed him. The pastor's answer was an emphatic NO. They do not miss us, they are expecting us! Heaven has no sense of time like we do. For our loved ones waiting there, they expect us to arrive and join them at any moment.

Your friend,
Keith Anderson

“ It was such a shock to open your message and see this sad news. Chris was such a vibrant and intelligent young man, full of promise. I was looking forward to seeing what he would do with his life, after accomplishing so much so far. I will miss that now and him too. We both send our love.
