

Christopher Allen Williams

December 18, 1990 - January 25, 2025

Christopher, age 34, passed away on Saturday, January 25, 2025. He was a resident of Hammond, LA. Christopher was an extremely hard worker who dedicated over 10 years to Rouses Market. He loved his job and had a huge work family. Christopher adored his daughter, Maci, and was happiest spending time with her. From going to the movies, eating out, or just hanging together, he would do anything to make his little girl smile. Christopher was a quiet person that mostly kept to himself, but if you got the chance to talk to him, you'd find he had a pretty good sense of humor. He was a strong, kind, and loving man that left his family with a lifetime of wonderful memories. Christopher was deeply loved and will be forever missed.

He is survived by his daughter, Maci Williams; wife, Chelsea Williams; mother, Maxine Williams; sister, Elizabeth Santiago; brother, Scott Williams; uncle, Frank Ciolino; and mother-in-law, Beckie Pistorius.

Christopher was preceded in death by his grandparents, Helen and LJ Dugas; aunt, Faye Ciolino; and father-in-law, Robert Pistorius.

“ Chris and I started working together in 2009. He became a good friend of mine and I loved him. We shared plenty of laughs and had some good times. You will be missed. Rest in Peace, brother.

I wish I could have said more, but it was tough. Above all we always had a good laugh. He used to tell me "Man, you crazier than a road lizard". I still don't know what the heck that means, but we always joked about it. I would always tell him, " I don't know what you know about road lizards, but them jokers are crazy"!

“ I worked with Chris in Ponchatoula and again in Hammond. I didn't know Chris for along time but we instantly became good friends sharing how much crocs cost for our daughters and don't forget the accessories to go with them... All around good guy! Chris was quiet but if he got to know you and opened up he was a very funny person. We would joke alot at work over situations that came up and always come back to the saying well the job got done with a fist bump... You will be missed!!!

“ I met Chris in 2009 when I hired him at LeBlanc's Food Store in Hammond. We were about to open a new store, and this lanky young man came for an application and an interview. In talking with him I felt he had potential and decided to give him an opportunity. Eventually, he became my frozen food and dairy manager. Chris became an asset to LeBlanc's and after Rouses purchased LeBlanc's he continued to show his willingness to learn and was promoted by the Rouses' organization. Chris will be missed by those who worked with him and for him. Vince Tallo
