“ My memory with Aunt Cindy that was funny we watched Steel Magnolias and when Julia Roberts was having a seizure I think and she was drinking orange juice and it was coming out her mouth and we both started doing that and I know it's not funny but it was funny to us.

I'm sorry I haven't saw her in along time with everything going on with my life, but we talked on the phone and Facebook. She'll be missed dearly.

“ Mom, you are missed more than you ever realized! I'm so thankful that we were able to go to Margaritaville last year and on the cruise this year! Love you always!

Rachel, our sincere heartfelt condolences to you, Anthony, your children, cousins Angela, Bruce, Crystal, Vincent, Ronald Rhoto Jr., Melissa, Davis, Pam & Marlene their children and your dad, Rod Rhoto Sr. Your mother brought a lot of love, care and smiles to many all her life. Keep in mind that she is at peace now with no pain or suffering with her mother, dad, sister, Debbie who was a true friend, always ready to lend a helping hand and her, brother all held by our Lord Jesus Christ for eternity, and you'll see her again one day.

I would have come to pay my respects to my oldest sister Cindy, my children, Tommy R. Emmons II and Stacey Morgan, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends but "Barbara Judas Dubroc" opted to share her ignorance and disrespect to all and most importantly her parents by failing to indicate your dad and me, Tommy R. Emmons and my wife, Jeanette J. Emmons.
